Brill Brothers

Outfitters to Men and Boys.

Note—The firm of Ab. Kirschbaum & Co. has been in the clothing business for more than half a century. From Portland, Maine, to Portland, Oregon, they are known as makers of the "Vitals" Brand Clothing—the name that stands for inwrought excellence. This firm, with offices in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco, has sold more than ONE HUNDRED MILLIONS of dollars' worth of clothing, and every garment ever sold has been well made from first stitch to last. The superiority of their clothing has brought increased business and compelled them to build an entirely new and bigger plant. To move their immense stocks meant a tremendous expenditure—a great delay, a serious loss. Our four great stores give us the LARGEST CLOTHING OUTLET in America, and we made Ab. Kirschbaum & Co. an offer for their ENTIRE IMMENSE STOCKS—an offer so low that we had no idea it would be accepted. But it was, and the result is that we offer

DEAD SOLDIERS LIE IN STATE.

Bodies of Heroes of Sixty-Ninth Arrive From the South.

The bodies of six soldiers of the Sixty-Ninth Regiment were brought back from Fort Thomas, Ky., and Newport, Ky., and Monteville, Ala., today from the cemeteries in which they had been interred. The men died in camp during the Spanish-American war, and their remains were in the ground almost two years. The bodies were taken to the morgue at Third Avenue and Seventh Street, this morning to lie in state with a guard of honor till Sunday, when they will be elaborate services in St. Patrick's Cathedral and a reinterment in Calvary Cemetery.

The bodies are those of John Burke, Company B, who died Nov. 16, 1898; Henry Murray, Company H, who died Jan. 12, 1899; William Fyfe, Company K, who died Oct. 21, 1898; and John Riley, Company M, who died Sept. 12, 1898. These bodies were in the Huntville Cemetery, Daniel Crowley, Company F, and William Ray, a musician, died in Fort Thomas.

Brings Back the Bodies.
The regiment determined to bring back the bodies of its dead, and a commission composed of Quartermaster John A. Flaney, Capt. P. E. Reville, Capt. P. J. Parrelly and Lieutenant P. J. Maguire was appointed. They left last week, and on Wednesday the bodies were returned. Capt. Parrelly and Quartermaster Delaney had charge of the Fort Thomas remains, and they brought them back over the Pennsylvania Railroad, arriving this morning. The bodies of the others at Huntville were exhumed and were accompanied to the railroad station by the Alabama Regiment. Monday morning the remains were taken to New York, and reached here this morning at the same time as those from Fort Thomas. The remains were in a good state of preservation.

Tie in the Drill-Room.
The regiments reached the armory about 10.30 o'clock. The remains were placed on a prepared catafalque in the large drill-room. The catafalque was covered with black cloth. At the top was an American eagle with an American flag. A guard of honor of a lieutenant, a sergeant, three corporals and twelve privates mounted the catafalque at intervals. The guard will be constant till Sunday afternoon, when the remains will be taken to the cathedral.

Miss May Edouin is due to arrive in this country to-morrow to begin her career with the "Theatrical" company, which will present that popular musical comedy at the Casino on Nov. 12.

WALTZ KING STRAUSS IS HERE WITH HIS BAND.

Arrived on Aller To-Day for a Concert Tour of America.

Eduard Strauss and his Vienna orchestra of fifty pieces reached this port this morning on a concert tour of America. The musicians came on the steamer Aller. Eduard Strauss, the leader, is an interesting personality. He is the youngest of the three sons of the famous Johann Strauss, who made the waltz the most popular of dances. Eduard Strauss, educated for the diplomatic service, found it impossible to resist his inherited inclination toward the musical profession. With his trip to America in two steamer companies a tour of what is practically the civilized world. He has played in 800 cities on two continents.

The waltz king will begin his series of concerts at the Waldorf-Astoria to-morrow night.

BELL'S SLAYER IS SENTENCED.

Fourteen Years and Three Months for John Cain, Colored Porter.

John Cain, the colored porter, who in June last fatally stabbed Richard L. Bell, was sentenced yesterday to fourteen years and three months at hard labor in Sing Sing prison. He was indicted for manslaughter in the first degree and pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the second degree. The extreme penalty is fifteen years. Judge Furman, in sentencing Cain, told him he was fortunate to have escaped with his life. "He would have received the full fifteen years," said Assistant District Attorney McIntyre, "but the law provides that State prisoners must be sentenced in such a manner that their terms will expire in the early part of the year, when they will be more apt to have an opportunity to earn an honest living." The sentence was a great surprise to Cain and his friends who had expected that he would go off with five years. "Tim" Sullivan, behind Cain and a few months ago attempted his life with a razor.

TWO SISTERS AS SWINDLERS.

Mullarkey Women Get $200 and Pay $150 in Fines.

The Mullarkey sisters are ahead of the game. After swindling 200 girls out of $1 each they have only had to pay fines amounting to $150, so that they are still $50 gainers on the transaction. The Mullarkey sisters, Catherine Marion M. Twenty-two and 19 years old respectively, are pretty, fully groomed and hail from May Tenn. They were clever, too, for girls were prepared to swear Court of Special Sessions. They recently advertised themselves as the "Arcadia" Company, 100 West 42nd Street, about 200 girls, according to the District Attorney, O'Reilly, each "ad." They had to dress "when employed" and their recs played. Then the $1 each disappeared and the girls were left at $1 each. The girls were arrested at 40 Broadway. Anna Catherine Mullarkey was 19.
